Brookline Bank Enhances Business Services with Two New Business Banking Representatives

BROOKLINE, MA - Brookline Bank is pleased to announce that Jason Trinqué and Mark Sills have joined the Bank as Business Banking Representatives.

Jason Trinqué, based out of Brookline Bank's Medford Square branch, is serving as the bank's business banking team leader and is covering the bank's north-of-Boston region. A resident of Winthrop, Jason is a 17-year banking veteran who has held similar positions at Sovereign Bank and predecessor banks including Fleet, BankBoston, and BayBank.

Mark Sills will be located at Brookline Bank's Coolidge Corner branch and will cover the bank's western and southern region. Also coming to Brookline Bank from Sovereign, Mark previously held the positions of Business Banking Relationship Manager and Credit Liaison. A former, successful small business owner, he brings the bank first-hand experience on the needs and expectations of businesses. Mark resides in Milton.

Mr. Trinqué and Mr. Sills will be partnering with Brookline Bank branches in their respective regions to provide customized lending, deposit and cash management services to businesses and their owners.
