Brookline Bank to Offer No-Charge Wire Transfers on IOLTA Checking.

BROOKLINE, MA – Brookline Bank today announced that it is eliminating charges for wire transfers to and from their IOLTA Checking account.

“An IOLTA can be a significant part of a practice’s relationship with their bank,” said Jane Wolchonok, Senior Vice President at Brookline Bank. “This change makes Brookline Bank more attractive to an important customer group. It will no doubt open more doors for us as we reach out to area law firms.”

Brookline Bank has spent the last two years enhancing its Business Banking services and now offers a full range of online cash management services to serve the needs of the legal community.

More information on Brookline Bank’s IOLTA Checking account and other banking services can be found online at www.brooklinebank.com, by calling 877-668-2265, or by visiting any Brookline Bank branch.

Brookline Bank is a subsidiary of Brookline Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ: BRKL), and is headquartered in Brookline, Massachusetts. A full-service financial institution, Brookline Bank provides individuals and businesses with deposit and lending services, residential mortgages and home equity lending, commercial and CRE lending, cash management, merchant services, and access to investment services. Brookline Bank operates 20 branches in Greater Boston.
