Henri Soucy Joins Brookline Bank Commercial Real Estate Group

BROOKLINE, MA – Henri A. Soucy has joined Brookline Bank’s Commercial Real Estate Banking group as Vice President. Soucy comes to Brookline with over 25 years of commercial real estate banking experience.

“Henri is a seasoned banker who adds further depth to our real estate team. His experience and knowledge of the Boston real estate community will add value to the quality real estate investors that bank with our organization,” said Darryl Fess, Group Head of Commercial Real Estate Banking at Brookline Bank.

Soucy was previously a lender at Eastern Bank/Wainwright Bank & Trust Company and held banking positions at Fleet Bank, Shawmut Bank and Union National Bank. He currently is a board member of Housing Families and was past Treasurer of Victory Programs. Soucy earned a BS in Management at the University of Massachusetts.
