John Sergi Joins Brookline Bank as Regional Director of Commercial Lending

Brookline, MA, August 5, 2010 – John L. Sergi has joined the Brookline Bank commercial banking team as Regional Director.

“We are fortunate to have a professional of John’s caliber join Brookline Bank. His 30-plus years of commercial banking experience and expertise working with clients will be a valuable asset in the growth of our business.” said Bill MacKenzie, Brookline Bank Senior Vice President. “John will be focusing on financing the growth of local businesses in the metro West area. He has served this market well for several decades and is well-regarded in the marketplace.”

Sergi comes to Brookline Bank from Rockland Trust in Waltham and previously held positions at Benjamin Franklin Bank/Chart Bank and Fleet.

“I couldn’t be happier about joining Brookline Bank,” comments Sergi. “I view it as an organization whose strength is based in the fundamentals of understanding of its customers. It is a pleasure to join a team of such experienced bankers and I look forward to making my contribution to the Bank’s success.”

Sergi will be based at the Bank’s Lexington office located at 1793 Massachusetts Avenue.
