- Also available as 18/65 Savings, with reduced/waived fees for customers ages 18 and under or 65 and over. Ask for details.
- To calculate the average daily balance, we add the principal amount in the account for each day of the statement period and divide by the number of days in the statement period.
- Surcharges may be assessed by other financial institutions (that are not part of the SUM[®] program) for the use of their ATMs.

Common Account Disclosures

The following disclosures apply to all types of accounts.

Business Day: The term "business day" refers to every day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays.

Accrual of Interest: Interest begins to accrue no later than the business day of your deposit.

Compounding and Crediting Frequency: Interest will be compounded monthly. Interest will be credited to your account every month on the statement date.

Account Closing and Interest: If you close your account before interest is credited, you will not receive the accrued interest.

Balance Computation Method: We use the daily balance method to calculate the interest on your account. This method applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day.

Notice of Withdrawal: We reserve the right to require seven days' notice in writing before each withdrawal from an interest-bearing account as defined by Regulation D.

Fees could reduce earnings on your account.
